

GET TO KNOW ...

GARRY LUCAS

Garry Lucas is retired as Clark County Sheriff after serving the community in that elected post for 24 years. In all, Garry served 46 years in the Clark County Sheriff's office. After retiring, he served as Interim Police Chief in Woodland, and in Ridgefield to help those departments transition through leadership changes. He's also a Charter Member of the Rotary Club of Three Creeks, having moved from the Rotary Club of Vancouver Sunrise, where he served as Club President.

Why did you join Rotary?

I was impressed that Rotary was apolitical. As an elected official, it was a meaningful way for me to give back to our community.

What do you like about our club?

Our club is less structured and more fun than most other Rotary Clubs.

What Rotary activity did you find your passion in?

Santa's Posse: We started a partnership with the sheriff's office and the Rotary clubs of Clark County ca 1996. We had a goal of 25 families' and delivered food, toys, and toiletries to 35 families. This year, with the assistance of donors, Clark County Food Banks and Portland Police Bureau's Sunshine Division, Santa's Posse with deliver food, toys and toiletries to more than 2000 families.

What's your superpower?

I don't have a superpower. I do have a love for our community and our citizens, and a love for Rotary & the Rotary Foundation. The good (eradication of polio from 98 percent of the world, clean water projects, and district and local projects improve the lives of millions of people around the globe. I am a major donor to the Rotary Foundation, and I urge the members the Rotary Club of Three Creeks to be involved. An automatic charge of $85 to your credit or debit card a month will make you a major donor in ten years, enrich the Foundation by $10,000, and make the world a better place for millions of people.
